

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES (POs)

FYUGP Political Science Course

PO1: Knowledge of Political Science: Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge and understanding of major concepts, theories, approaches, traditions and debates in Political Science.

PO2: Political and Constitutional Understanding: Develop a sound understanding of the Indian Constitution, political institutions, democratic processes, citizenship, rights, federalism and the functioning of the Indian political system.

PO3: Comparative Perspective: Develop the ability to compare political systems, institutions, governments and political processes across different countries and contexts.

PO4: Understanding of Indian Politics: Demonstrate an informed understanding of Indian political processes, including elections, political parties, regionalism, caste, ethnicity, religion, social movements and changing patterns of state-society relations.

PO5: Governance and Public Administration: Understand and critically examine public administration, public policy, governance, decentralisation, local self-government, public institutions and welfare administration in India.

PO6: International and Global Understanding: Analyse international relations, foreign policy, global governance, international organisations, global conflicts, human rights and contemporary global political and economic issues.

PO7: Human Rights, Gender and Social Justice: Demonstrate sensitivity towards human rights, gender equality, social justice, inclusion, diversity and the concerns of disadvantaged and marginalised communities.

PO8: Communication and Presentation Skills: Demonstrate effective written, oral and academic communication skills through assignments, seminars, presentations, research reports and other academic activities.

PO09: Democratic and Ethical Values: Develop commitment to constitutional values, democracy, liberty, equality, justice, secularism, accountability, transparency, ethical governance and responsible citizenship.

PO10: Problem Solving and Contemporary Engagement: Apply political knowledge and analytical skills to understand and respond constructively to contemporary political, social, economic and governance challenges.

PO11: Lifelong Learning and Career Readiness: Develop the intellectual, research and practical competencies necessary for higher education, competitive examinations, research, public service, teaching and other professional pursuits.